Decorating adds value to your home in so many ways! Your family will enjoy the beauty of your Window Seal window treatments.

Trusted Since 1974, Window Seal has been designing and completing window spaces for home owners around the world. Our strengths allow us to blend our various divisions into one, allowing home owners to take advantage of our abilities.

Invest wisely and inspect the source of your product. Window Seal recognizes the variances of material, powder ... pellet ... re-cycled materials and their risks. Using poor compounds can result in peeling/cracking/discoloring/warping etc. Visit our website videos to understand the value we offer in every product. www.windowseal.ca

Window Seal extrudes with many years of experience. Our powdered material is sourced from the finest compound suppliers in North America and is then extruded by Window Seal into manufacturing materials for integrity.

We sincerely thank you for taking the time to consider Window Seal as your extruder and manufacturer. Purchasing products from Window Seal is an investment with peace of mind.

Manufacturing a great product incorporates home owner's needs and wants giving life to a timeless design with functionality.
